

National School of Business Management Limited (NSBM)

National School of Business Management Limited (NSBM) has been incorporated with the company number PB4833 under the Companies Act, No 7 of 2007 on October 7, 2011 as the Degree Awarding School of the National Institute of Business Management (NIBM).

Whilst presenting the budget proposal for 2012 it has been declared by His Excellency President Mahinda Rajapaksa, that an eco-friendly University which is identified as the 'Green University' will be established as the first of its kind in South Asia and as a result it has been proposed to establish this Green University within a 26 acre land at Pitipana, Homagama with the latest amenities based on state-of-the-Art technologies accommodating more than 30,000 students. The construction of the University has already commenced and it is envisaged to complete the project in a short period of time, such as in 730 days, and it will be made available for students in 2016.

The City Branch of the NSBM is in operation at No 309, Highlevel Road, Colombo 5 housing 4,500 students, concurrently being occupied in their undergraduate studies, waiting to achieve their expectations based on outstanding undergraduate and graduate programs which are already authorized by the University Grants Commission and also by internationally renowned leading Universities.

In order to develop Sri Lanka as a knowledge hub in Asia as declared within the Manifesto of Mahinda Chintana, this project seeks to provide an active contribution for the purpose of developing the humanitarian society necessary for its future knowledge economy by emerging an environment-friendly, energy-efficient and networked knowledge-based centre in Asia.
